Award winning Canadian indie artist, Lyric Dubee, is coming back to celebrate his recent accomplishment of International Entertainer of the Year at the ISSA (International Singer Songwriter Association) Awards which took place on August 3, in Atlanta, Georgia.

Lyric will return on August 23 from a 4 month music residency in Bermuda to perform at the Georgian Triangle Music Festival in Wasaga Beach, August 24 at 3 pm to perform songs from his newest album, all This Time which was released in late April.

At 21, Lyric is no stranger to international performances, with 4 albums released before he was 18. In 2015 he toured Asia with a double album release and is scheduled to head back to China Sept 21 to perform at the Nanyang Music Festival.

Barrie native, Lyric started his career in 2011 at age 12 when he released his first album and the signs were clear he had something special as he won Best Young Songwriter at the Barrie New Music Festival. Since then he has gone on to win multiple awards, including 2015 Toronto Independent Music Awards for the Best Young Songwriter and now in 2019 International Entertainer of the Year.

ALL THIS TIME ALBUM REVIEWS:

“FUNKIFIED BLUESIFIED SOULIFIED & ROCKIFIED. Really shows diversity and growth as an artist.”

Randy Skaggs- Q108

“Will be adding the new tune to our master playlist! I love the video for “Back Home” – makes me dance in my seat!! ”

Bootsy Hambone-KKID 92.9 FM

“Did you ever just have the feeling you were in the company of greatness? For instance, I wonder what the people in Elvis's high school thought when they first heard him sing. Chills right? Well that's what I got when I first heard and then saw Lyric Dubee.”

JOHN REIGN – CRANK IT UP MAGAZINE, USA 2016

“Dubee could well be the next Jon Bon Jovi: equally at home and confident writing his own songs, composing with others, and performing in various genres like the seasoned entertainer that he already is. It's when he steps out of his comfort zone, however, that he truly lets his genius bloom.”

LAURIER TIERNAN – METROPOLIS MAGAZINE, Japan

“Teen's music beyond his years”
